coffee mugs

The BOND features a super “round continuous curve” inside profile that allows the aroma to develop to its fullest. The ultra-thick wall of the cup makes it super durable and maintains the temperature of the coffee. The cup further retains the heat by its heat trap design created by the extra space at the base. The avant-garde handle modifies the cups centre of gravity, giving you balance when pouring your latte art and comfort when drinking.

COLOURS

the new colours

Having a retail shop in Le Marais, Paris, we were deeply inspired by the french colours. The ever subtle yet stylish way the fashion industry brings, and the inspiration the beautiful city gives you. The 4 new bond mugs are colours we see in the streets of Paris.

the new colours

The 4 new addition glazes will launch in New York Coffee Fest in March 2023. And will be available in our Paris Le Marais Store at the same time.

Weird Coffee Person

Loveramics, in collaboration with Tens, Hundreds & Thousands, are proud to present the third release of the collection of artists & designers glassware in collaboration.

Only a Weird Coffee Person could argue that a cup of coffee is a relaxing hot bath for your brain. Nothing beats the feeling of comfort and coziness your mind feels from the first sip of coffee, right until the last drop. We know we are not alone on this one, so for the next Weird Coffee Person series, we created this relaxed brain in a cup of coffee, while having a cup of coffee.

Designed by the talented Taylor Naoko, a Vancouver-based graphic designer and freelance illustrator. Most of her inspiration stems from the unusual beauty and undervalued details of everyday life and objects, as well as subtle moments seen day to day.

Perfect gift for coffee geek.
