Dale Harris

Unleashing Greatness, One Cup At A Time.

Designer of this series:

Dale Harris

Dale Harris, the World Barista Champion in 2017, was exploring what could be possible within the confines of barista competition service, and how the sensory impact of drinks could be improved through a wider experience, he began working with London based ceramicist, Ben Sutton, on some porcelain cups that would allow a set of coffee drinks to really shine. The designs were focussed on Ben's artistic skill with hand-thrown porcelain, combining elegant aesthetics with the materials and glaze's natural tones and textures to highlight the colours, quality, and multi-sensory impact of the drinks.

About this collection:

The Dale Harris Cups are a special collaboration between Loveramics and Dale Harris, the World Barista Champion. Originally designed and handcrafted by Ben Sutton, a talented potter and close friend of Dale, these cups have become a beloved part of the coffee competition scene. Dale fell in love with their aesthetics and we at Loveramics were equally enamored, leading us to manufacture them to our high standards for use in busy cafes worldwide.

Available in six different colors, the cream cups are the same ones Dale used on stage during competitions. We also offer two simple yet elegant translucent blue and green options. But that's not all - our range has expanded to include three new "Crackle Glaze" colors, specially formulated to create a unique crackled effect that can only be achieved in a small ceramics studio. These cups come in the three popular sizes used by baristas around the world: 200ml, 150ml, and 80ml handle-less cups with no saucer.

Each cup in the Dale Harris collection is a prized piece of pottery, with a glaze that can only be achieved through careful craftsmanship in a small ceramics studio. We are proud to offer these cups to coffee lovers and baristas alike, and we hope they will bring joy and beauty to your daily coffee rituals. Elevate your coffee experience with the Dale Harris Cups, available exclusively from Loveramics.
